

Feingold's Running Mate (P. Leidy)

It's time we had a President from the Dairy State
Russ, you are the one, and you'll need a good running mate
Mind if I suggest to you who that ought to be?
You need look no further—your short list is me.

I would make you proud, cause I can't wait to be
Your loyal, faithful, dedicated trustworthy VP
You'll be Cheesehead one, I'll be Cheesehead two I'll be more fun than Jerry Ford or Spiro T. Agnew

Compare me to Al Gore, and I'd be better yet
He was way too stiff, even if, he invented the Internet

The resume is lacking, yes, but my plan don't let that foil
I don't have Cheney's experience, or his ties to Big Oil
I'm no Hubert Humphrey, I'm no Fritz Mondale
But I'm not for sale, never been in jail (though a few times I did inhale)

It's a thankless job but I will serve you every day
Go to funerals all around the world, and do whatever the hell you say
Russ I hope you choose me, and here's one more reason why
If Dan Quayle can be Vice President of the United States of America—
Then by golly, so can I
Pick me Russ—I'll be your guy
